Online PR News - 27 January 2017 - California - QASource, a leading software QA company, announced it has presented a highly successful webinar titled, "Managers, Future Proof Your Automation."

"Our team worked together to produce a great webinar that hit on some universal automation pain points," said Rick Rampton, Head of Client Success at QASource. "We had a higher than normal turnout and great engagement with the attendees following the webinar."

An exceptionally high amount of people, around 2,000, registered to attend QASource's webinar, and many who attended, engaged with QASource by downloading their free checklist.

"The amount of registrants and those who attended 'Managers, Future Proof Your Automation' was amazing," said Rajeev Rai, CEO of QASource. "Our team presented an information-packed webinar with content that anyone in the software development and QA industry can use."

In this webinar, QASource shared strategies to create an automation suite that is easily maintained, efficiently automates new features, has adaptive framework and reduces false positives. QASource also offered a free checklist to attendees so they could determine if their automation is future proof. To find this checklist, visit info.qasource.com/checklist.
